

G-Part, first company in China to undertake the Inteliam Business & Sustainability rating

Inteliam expands its presence in Asia, after being appointed to provide business and sustainability assessment to Chinese automotive spare parts specialist G-Part E-Commerce Co. Ltd.

G-Part is the first player in China to participate in the Inteliam evaluation. The company is at the forefront in the sector for developing corporate processes, namely for human resources management, risk control and financial control, and has set a clear strategy to improve its performance. Moreover, G-Part has been playing a leading role in China through its nationwide cover and advanced sourcing and commercial strategy, involving dedicated personnel and technical training and assistance. The association with Inteliam helps G-Part identify new improvement initiatives in order to continue strengthening its operations and enhance its reputation as market leader.

Inteliam is a rating company dedicated to the Automotive Aftermarket. It aims to support long-term profitability and sustainable growth by evaluating 4 main pillars: sustainability commitments, corporate processes and business expertise, financial strength; via a standardised rating methodology. The benefits of an Inteliam rating are numerous and include: providing transparency, continuous improvement and a tool for embarking on the sustainability journey. As an independent and international entity, Inteliam has already assessed more than 50 distribution companies from within the aftermarket industry.

Zheng Ying, chief marketing officer of G-Part E-Commerce Co. Ltd.: "it is a great honour to be the first chinese company to complete the inteliam evaluation. As an actor of the Chinese automotive aftermarket, we hope to see the development and success of Chinese companies globally. Participating in the rating is not only a responsibility, but also how we show our leadership to help more Chinese companies be aligned with international standards."

Antoine Soulier, CEO of Inteliam: "Congratulations to G-part, for its performance and for demonstrating leadership by engaging with inteliam. We are glad to bring this international sector standard to the Chinese market, demonstrating our capacity to deliver and support in the different regions around the world".
